Purpose of the data processing

If you contact us for other matters than the initiation of a contract, we are processing your data based on our legitimate interest to conduct our business operations pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR. We do not process any data without prevailing legitimate interest, e.g. when coordinating with other suppliers of our customers.

Categories of recipients

In the context of the provision of services for special sectors, we use service providers that have been contractually obligated to maintain confidentiality and protect data in the event that access to personal data cannot be excluded. This category of recipients includes: IT service providers, service providers relating hosting, data destruction service providers and external consultants. Data disclosure to authorities requires the existence of overriding statutory provisions. There is no transmission of data to third countries.

Storage period and deletion of data

Your data will be stored for the duration of the necessary processing. If communication takes place, we are obliged to retain the tax-relevant documents for 10 years after the annual accounts and calendar year end. Subsequently, the data will be deleted.

Your right to information, rectification, erasure, object and data portability

You may avail yourself of your rights to access, rectification and erasure of data at any time. Simply contact us using one of the methods described above. Should you require data to be deleted, which we are still legally obligated to retain, access to your data will be restricted (blocked). The same applies to your right to object. You may avail yourself of your right to data portability if the recipient and ourselves have the technical means.

Right to lodge a complaint

You have the option at any time to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority

Provision obligation

Without providing correct data, the conclusion of a contract may not be possible.
